

Installation Video

Installation manual R10, R20 and R30 rail

We highly recommend watching the Installation Video before installing the rails.

Cutting Advice

Please note, when cutting down rails to the required length: This should be always done at the end which will be covered with an end cap or corner connector and under no circumstances at the end which will be attached to another rail.

newly
CONNECTING ART